

CHRIST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Connecting people to Jesus so that lives, families, and community can be restored.

September 9, 2020

3R Bible Study Begins TONIGHT

Our country is at a crossroads in racial relationships. Many of us are hesitant even to talk about the issue. Join me, Dr. Jon McCoy, and pastor Rocky Shack as we begin a 6-week study tonight at 6pm on Racism, Repentance, and Reconciliation. Click HERE to register, and we will share a Zoom link so you can join us.

New Worship Series Starts Sunday

Has your life been disrupted this year? Then you'll want to join us in person or online for our new series – DISRUPTED. We'll acknowledge this year of crises and seek ways to live through it together. Register ahead online or call the main church number between 9:00am-3:00pm. Please remember to wear a mask, maintain distance from non-family members, and refrain from singing. Let's do all we can to keep our congregation safe.

Loving Our Neighbors

With the help of Security Team leader Henry Shotts and our HR staff member Michelle Shaleen, a group of Christ United staff and security team members recently provided food for the Jackson Police Department precinct down the street from Christ United. This was a way for us to show love to our neighbors who look out for all of us.

New Cross on the Front Lawn

Thanks to the work of our Facilities Director, Mike Conerly, we have replaced the old wooden cross in front of the church with a taller metal cross. We are grateful to Wicker Brothers Inc. of Florence, who fabricated and donated the cross, and to McInvale Heating & Air, who installed the cross.

Be sure to take a look at the other discipleship and ministry opportunities available in today's Enote.

Make it a GREAT week!
